Welcome To The August Meeting Tonight

Tonight's meeting is our Bring and Buy , or giant car boot sale evening , so we hope you have brought along some stuff to sell to your fellow members to make some money before Christmas to buy those fantastic Christmas presents for your near ones and dear ones.

Last Months Meeting

In last months meeting we had a very quite evening partly due to the fact that a lot of members appeared to be on holiday including Simon Drake and his wife, so sorry if it was rather quite for you ..

Next Months Meeting

In next meeting we hope to hold the toughest quiz of the year so far , with lots of super prizes to be won for the winners and it is good fun so please join in . The November meeting will be last at the Rugby Club for the year of 2002 as the December meeting is the Christmas Party .

Castle Combe 2003

The first of the meetings to start planning the Castle Combe event for

2003 took place on Weds 9th

Oct, we hope everyone has read the very good article in the current issue of Rallye News , as it just proves that the Castle Combe event is liked by every one .

The committee is now more balanced as the Swindon Group have now got 5 members on the Castle Combe Event committee .

The event for next year will be bigger and better than ever , watch this space for more details .

Christmas Party

As you all know by now , this years Christmas party takes place on Friday 6th Dec at the

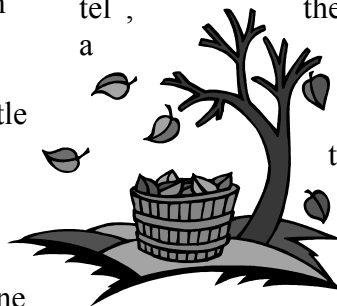

Treasure Hunt

Sun 20th Oct

*Starts from the Compass Inn
Prizes for the Winners*

Rolling Road Shoot out
Sun 24th Nov
Mech Repairs
Speak to Simon D asap

Almondsbury Interchange Hotel , there are just a few places left , so if you wish to take part in this years party and disco , please speak to Ian now , as it should be a very good evening so come along and have some fun.

News update

With in the past week or so everyone should have had in the post a copy of the September issued News update , however the committee members did not , if you did not receive a copy then it is now all up on the web site , as Alex has posted the whole thing up there , but I have a few hard copies if you would like one , please ask , the update lists All the things happening up to and including January 2003

In a few weekends time the National RSOC will be holding both the Local Group Seminar and the National General Annual Meeting at the Thistle Hotel , Castle Donington , Ian will be attending both ie the whole week end , however I believe the meetings will be heated and if last years is anything to go by then it should be an eye opener .

I will let you know the highlights of both in the November meeting .

Web Site

If you have recently visited the web site you will have noticed that we now have a new bulletin board has been made and provided by Phil Mumford and the site has now been updated again by Alex with all the latest stuff so please use it .

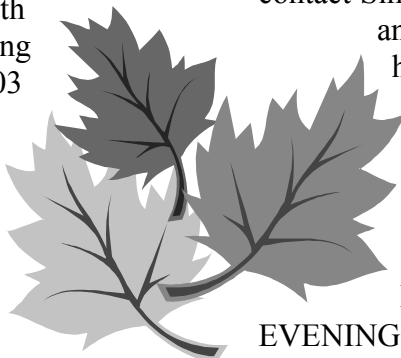

Shows

The show season has now finished as winter and the colder days approach but a very big THANK YOU to all the members who took the time and trouble to attend the shows of which we attended many through out the year , roll on next years shows , it will not be long !

Ford News

This new Focus RS is about to hit the showrooms at a price of £19,999 and it appears that a good few have already been sold , but a waiting list now is lengthening with some dates going into March 2003 before you see your RS , but it should be worth the wait .
