Welcome To The Nov Meeting

Tonight

In Tonight's meeting we hope to bring you Live Skittles , with prizes for the winners and we hope also to bring you a small raffle .

Last Months Meeting

In last months meeting we had our first quiz of the winter months , well done to the winners and thanks Simon for the questions , it was brilliant to see so many members that evening .

Next Months Meeting

Next months meeting moves temporarily to a new date , on Thursday 11th Dec and we are meeting at the McDonalds restaurant in Cribbs

Causeway (not the one by Asda) from 7.30pm, this will be a quite formal meeting , and subs will not be collected that evening

the car park , it is across the road from the leisure complex in Cribbs

Castle Combe 2004

This years Castle Combe Track and regional day was, I think you will all agree was a fantastic day and the best yet .

CC2004 looks like it will be even bigger and better, it will take place on Sat 10th July 2004 so put this date on your calendar now .

This next years parade laps choices are fantastic and very interesting as they slant towards Ford cars in general but still retain the sports feel ie Fiesta RS, Probes, Ka's, Racing Pumas, RS500's and the Charit in 2004 is the Macmillan Trust , a

December Meeting
Thurs 11th McDonalds

few of the entry prices have increased slightly but they remain the same to both Bristol and Swindon group members , so you are saving even more being a local group member .

Application forms should be available with in the next 4 weeks or so , but at the latest before Christmas .

Some adverts also will start to appear in Jan 2004 . The updated web site is now on line and we have a new web address , www.rscombe.com , well done to Alex who has worked had on the site .

Keep a close eye on the next few issues of Fast Ford as they will be running a show report in the new year .

Shows

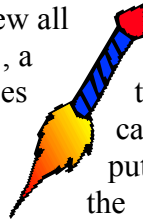

This years show season is now finished and what a year , many thanks to Chris for all his hard work in arranging all the shows , the

and if it is dry we will be outside in trophies will be issued in the January meeting as a few members are unable to attend the Christmas meeting .

The 2004 show calendar is considering that it rained and blew all day the day before , a big thank you goes to everyone who came along to put their cars on

Jan Meeting Car Boot Sale 15.Jan.2004

starting to fill now and this will be available very soon and if you know of a show happening in 2004 , then please let Chris know ..

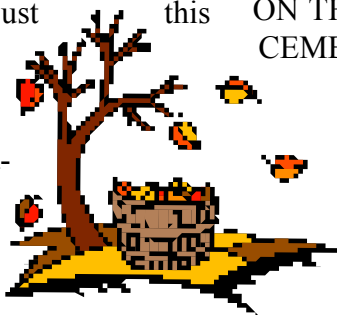

Christmas Party

As you all should know by now this years Christmas Party takes place on Sat 20th December at The Almondsbury Interchange Hotel , forms covering the meal selection, etc are now available by asking Ian.

However spaces are limited so act now as this is one of the last opportunities you may have before the party on the 20th Dec and a small deposit is requested at the time of booking . If you are interested the accommodation is available for the Sat night at a price of £60.00 per couple sharing a double/twin room and a full English breakfast is included (which appears to be good value)

Rolling Road

This years Rolling Road Shoot-out took place just this last Saturday just gone ie 15th November at Powerstation , the day proved to be just right , the rollers or came along to support your fellow members , it was great to see so many people . Thank you Simon for arranging the session , and yes , Fast Ford was there , and yes , the session should appear in Fast Ford in the New year .

Web Sites

Just to let you know that the web site is now up again after a few hiccups along the way as we have bought some web space , the newsletters will now be available to download as a pdf file , and will look the real thing now and in colour .

WE HOPE YOU ENJOYED
